World Quality Month 2022
10th December 2022

To commemorate the World Quality Day 2022, the Quality Professionals wing of CAHO had organized a virtual Quiz Contest on the theme 'Leadership in Quality' on 10th December.

The event commenced with the welcome address by Dr Anoushka Pilchunari (Chairperson Quality Professionals) followed by a special talk on Leadership highlighting the reasons why 'leaders are not always born, but they are made and the ingredients that go into making a leader'. The quiz was then conducted in two rounds, top-next level by Dr Vijay Agarwal (Principal Scientist CAHO).
A panel discussion on 'Where does the buck stop for leaders in healthcare quality - Patient or Provider?' was then conducted with panelists - Dr Ashish Bhalla (Vice Chair GP Wing, CAHO), Dr Suneel Mundkur (HHI Manipal) & Dr Sasseen Singh (Joint Secretary, CAHO). The panel was moderated by Dr Sandhya Kamath (Director Upasana Arora Chakravarty Foundation), Ms Clara Mathur (MHH Calicut), Mr Ashish Kumar (Director Quality, Medanta, Gurugram).
There was an actively shared debate moderated by Dr Anoushka Pilchunari on the role of Quality Managers in Hospital - Are they recognized as leaders & change agents? Or are they just data collectors? Quality Managers are the eyes & ears of the organization. Initial spoke against the topic. The debate was highly interactive with the audience voicing their opinion by participating in the polls held online. The panel was then asked to vote on the topic and the majority voted for the topic. Panelists shared their inputs on how additional pain, there would be to pain and Quality Managers would be better off if they were not data collectors.

The event was a huge success with over 200 attendees including CAHO Patrons & Governing Committee. There were 5 competitions announced as part of Quality Month celebration and winners were declared as follows:
