Quality Fables Chat

13th April 2021

The sixth chat of CAHO - Qimpro Foundation Quality Fables Chat series on Lessons from Kargil was held on 13th April. It was a great interactive chat session between Mr Suresh Lulla (Qimpro Foundation), Dr Vijay Agarwal (CAHO), Dr Narendranath V (RMCH Bangalore) and Dr Seema Bhargava (Sir Ganga Ram Hospital, Delhi).

Lessons Learned:

- There are four levels of planning - Strategic, tactical, operational, budgeting
- A vision is a snapshot of what you wish to become
- Strategic Planning is a vision deployment exercise
- For Strategic Planning, we must schedule our priorities
- For Operational Planning, we must prioritize our schedule
- Leaders must take full accountability for planning
- Execution can be deployed

Problem Solving Pro Certification

The digital course is a beautiful, live-action case study-The Case of the Late Patient-that takes you through the Problem-Solving journey, in a 'comic book' style.

"Patient Safety and Affordability are two major issues confronting healthcare. Mr Suresh Lulla, Founder of QIMPRO, has done commendable work in the application of proven quality tools in healthcare, which is aimed at improving the efficiency and therefore the affordability." - Dr Girdhar Gyani, Founder & Director General, AHPI

On successful completion of the digital course, each candidate will be able to download an e-Certificate of Completion awarded by CAHO & Qimpro.

Fee: INR 5,900 incl. GST
