2022 UPDATE

HAPPY NEW YEAR 2023

We are coming to the end of 2022. What an incredible year it has been for CAHO!

We are proud to share that CAHO has been able to motivate more and more healthcare institutions, diagnostic centres and quality enthusiasts to work with passion and zeal towards quality promotion and patient safety. This has been made possible because of the guidance of our patrons and the energy and commitment of our program leaders, standing committee chairpersons and members and governing committee members.

As we move to 2023, we want to thank everyone for their contribution and indeed we have so much to share that it is impossible to communicate and do justice in an end-of-the-year letter. There is still plenty to be achieved in CAHO's evolution and we see next year lined up with many more activities, programs and goals. We sincerely appreciate your continued partnership, as we look forward to working together in making healthcare better and safer and maximizing the value CAHO brings to each one of you!
